TO LISA,
It has been five to knowing you
and sitting next to you in comp skills class.
I hope but, I don't think we year, 'cause I'll be in Japan can have a nice summer
Shohei T.

Dear Lisa,
I've been so lost without you! Just kiddin!
Really tho, how ya been or Lin! I love talking to you about life and relationships and things. I hope you're still doing well w/ Jim! I see you at El Camino!
Have a great summer and don't do anything I wouldn't do - so in other words don't kill yourself.

me I made was rather a drag but it was to fun talking to everyone. I made a few friends - especially you though! Well see you later

Love, Bryan

P.S. Keep in touch.

ACTIVITIES

Hi Lisa,
I'm glad I got to know you! Can you believe we are out of school? Maybe I'll see you over summer! I'll see you call me you and Jim and whatever

Delighting summer audiences, Neil Simon's "Little Me" proved to be yet another PTSA success. Students from all three high schools on the hill took part in this exciting musical comedy. A special visit by Donald O'Connor, the always popular star of both the screen and the stage, was a highlight of the show's successful run.

Tiffany Smith played the older Belle Poitrine, who, in the process of telling her memoirs takes the play back to the time of her youth. The story then follows the younger Belle, played by Kirsten Benton, in her pursuit of "wealth, culture, and social position." Adam Horn showed his great versatility by playing the various men in Belle's life. Supported by an excellent cast and crew, the show was an exciting and memorable production.

Lisa Prescott, Abby Gardner, Dawn Holland, and Kristy Danache cling to the winsome General (Curtis Virtue) as Kirsten Benton looks on in disbelief.

Standing back proudly, Older Belle (Tiffany Smith) presents the finished statue (Ben Lipton).

Gazing into each other's eyes, Val du Val (Adam Horn) and Belle (Kirsten Benton) enjoy a moment together.

"Little Me" proves to be yet another great success story

"Not yet!" cries the dying Prince Cherney (Adam Horn) to the angel (Kim Lawson) as his loyal subjects bid goodbye to their beloved prince.

Standing side by side, Belle (Kirsten Benton) waits patiently for an excited Fred Poitrine (Adam Horn) to calm down.

Taking time out from another day of hard work, stage crew finally relaxes.

"Anyone for a box of jujubees?" asks Adam Horn of Brad Cassil, Greg Mohr, Kirsten Benton, Jon Tilley, and Kim Lawson.

Students have weekend of hard work and fun play

The annual Leadership camp, held at the JCA camp near Big Bear was very successful. Much was accomplished throughout the weekend. The first day was spent entirely on the planning of the 1984 Homecoming activities.

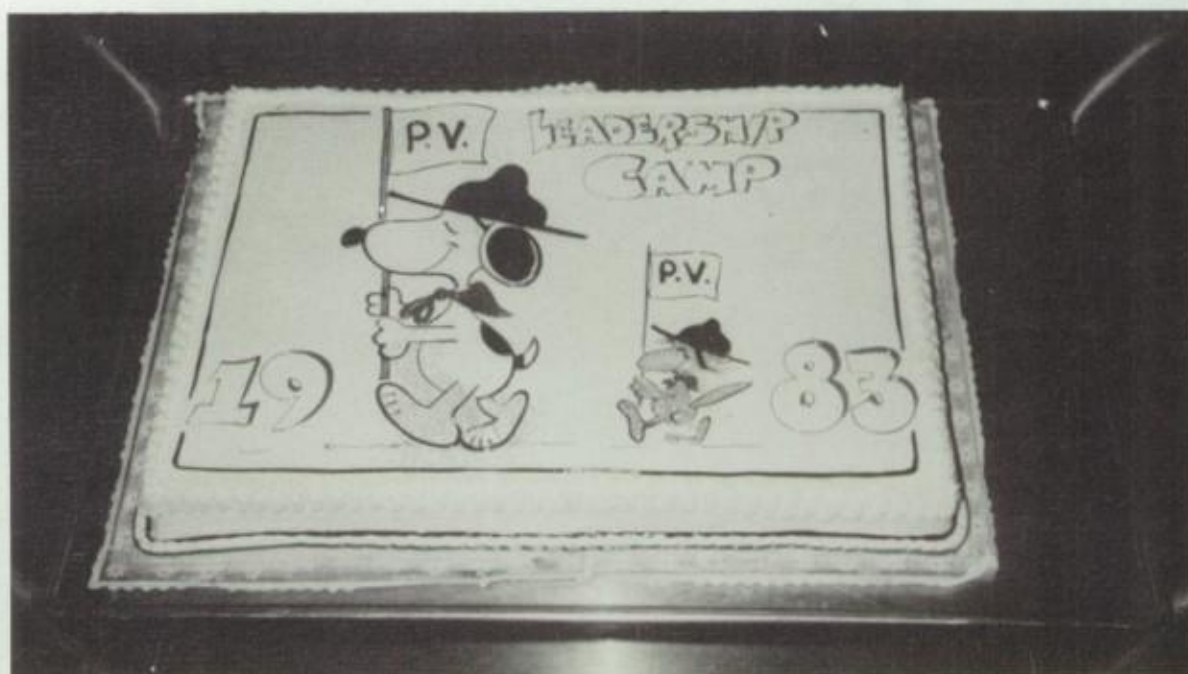

The second day, the students were split into groups to discuss various topics including school improvement and Creative Thought Day. Students were also given an opportunity to sit back, relax, and enjoy the mountain air.

Jenny Tsao, Greg Hardy, and Christine Kim take a break from work and soak up the mountain sun.

ASB President Walter Burkley demonstrates his authoritative power at Leadership camp.

One of the biggest highlights of the weekend was a beautifully decorated cake for the occasion.

Greg Hardy teaches a very cooperative group of students a dance called "The Smurf"

Mr. Kinney talks to a group of students in one of many brain-storming get-togethers.

The roaring flames of the bonfire reached its peak very fast to nobodys surprise.

School gets together for a huge spirit-filled bonfire

Brought back after a long absence, the traditional bonfire was held on the night before Homecoming day. According to ASB President Walter Burkley, "It was a huge success. Everyone was pleased and it showed school involvement by everybody.

The event was held on the football field with extreme safety precautions in mind. The people in the houses bordering the school were warned of the occurance. Because the tremendous outcome, a bonfire for next year is very likely.

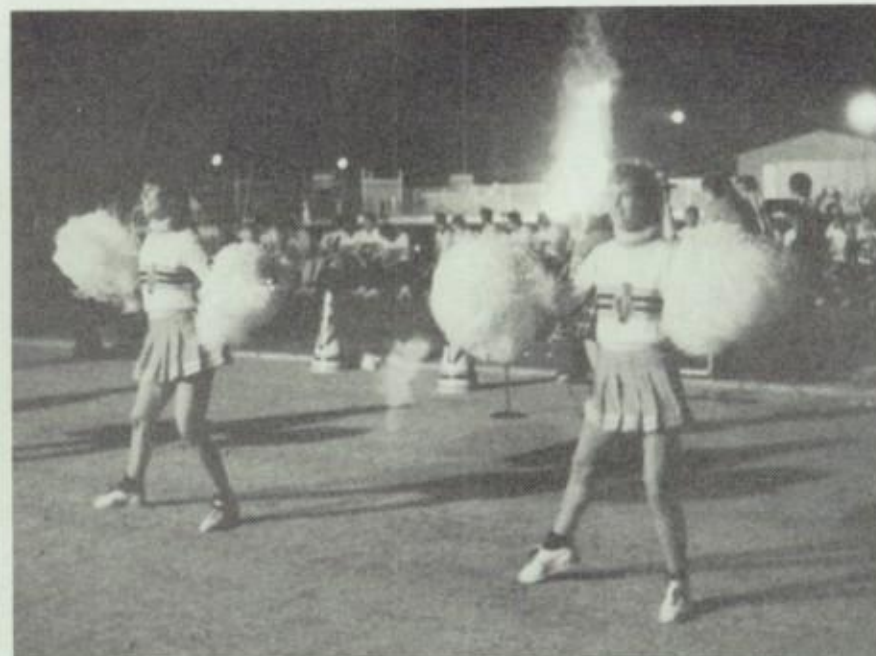

The helpful Palos Verdes firemen put out the fire as best as they could.

Specially trained personnel made the start of the bonfire a very successful one.

Enormous crowds of people and great times gave a precedent for a bonfire next year.

School spirit and involvement were very large factors on bonfire night.

"Will it rain like last year and ruin all the activities?" This was the question in everyone's minds Homecoming day of 1983. Fortunately for everyone except the Tartars it did not rain, and the day went on as scheduled. The first major activity of the day was the Miss Brickhouse competition in which John Wang, alias Mrs. Glushenko, was chosen Miss Brickhouse 1983. The pep squad then spoke their sparkling bits of poetry and the game was soon upon us. The Torrance Tartars were in for the game of their lives. At half time, the sophomore float was awarded first place and Natalie Baszile was chosen Homecoming Queen 1983-1984. The Sea Kings later 'creamed' the Tartars. (Does that make them tartar sauce?) All in all, it was a grand day full of the usual excitement and spirit plus an extra feeling of unity between the classes.

Greg Hardy seems to be taking the day's activities seriously.

Dan Wozniak and Scott Jordan grit their teeth while Lamont Lacey and Ed Chevalier appear to be having a ball.

Key Club mascot, Waldo, smiles at the crowd.

Natalie Baszile smiles at her fellow Sea Kings while riding around P V field.

The homecoming princesses rush to congratulate the new Homecoming Queen, Natalie Baszile.

Feeling of unity dominates Homecoming Day activities

Led by Sophomore Class President, Akemi Yamane, the class of '86 earned first place for their float.

With her father by her side, Natalie Baszile walks with poise.

Kurt Frias, Lisa Wang and Debbie Dollinger trip the light fantastic.

Students escape to 'Night of Knights'

The Homecoming Formal provided an exciting climax to Homecoming Week as students enjoyed "A Night of Knights". Natalie Baszile reigned as Homecoming Queen, as the crowds danced to the beat of "A Western Front". The Homecoming Princesses included Lorraine Eslinger, Jennifer Hardwick, Alison Miller, and Lisa Teske.

Jackie Lee and guest dance in a world all their own.

Fall musical makes its triumphant return with 'Godspell'

The entire cast of 'Godspell' comes out to sing the finale, 'Prepare Ye.'

Anita Intagliata and John Hinchliffe sing their hearts out in a fine perform

The circus cast joins together in the funeral procession.

Eric Kunzelman gives Amy Ferrera a lesson in life in a scene from the 'Prodigal Son.'

'Godspell' casts a spell on audience

Godspell, PV High's first fall musical in eleven years, entertained audiences with a fine performance. Although attendance was not huge, the play still received great reviews.

Godspell exhibited the morals and the ideals of Christianity with an enthusiastic cast to support it. The show displayed talented performers with Adam Horn and Tim Hurley being the most dominant of the group. As usual, the choreography of Godspell was excellent as most of the PV High's musicals have been.

At the hands of director Jim Bell and choreographer Michael Rooney, the 'show ran very smoothly.

During the trial of Jesus, the judges remain straight-faced and serious.

Jesus(Adam Horn) preaches loudly to his followers.

While the Christmas spirit was high in PV, an unforgettable journey was made to Harlan Shoemaker. Drill Team, Orchestra, Pep Squad, and assorted student body were among those who attended. They entertained and enlightened the day for several physically and mentally handicapped children.

Acts included, "The Toy Soldier," "The Three Pigs," and "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer."

The wonderful experience was rewarding to PV students as well as the Harlan Shoemaker kids.

Members of the PVHS Jazz Band blow their hearts out in an excellent musical performance.

PV students enlighten and entertain

A group of assorted student body wait patiently to perform for the Harlan Shoemaker kids.

Shoemaker students and visitors enjoy the variety of productions at the annual PV High Christmas play.

Danny Mishell and Darryl Stolz flash the Sea King spirit to an enthusiastic crowd of spectators.

Youth marches to promote education

"Youth on Parade" is an annual event that opens the eyes of many. The main purpose was to inform the community of the numerous youth programs on the peninsula. Marching bands and pep squads from PVHS, RHHS, and Miraleste were included in the parade. PVHS's theme was "A Flash of Brilliance" and members of the student body were appropriately dressed in trenchcoats and dark glasses. It was certainly a day of spirit and excitement.

Drill Team marches with precision down the parade route. Members of the Tall Flags show off their spirit by holding the school's sign with pride.

Dressed as flashers, Cricket Mulkey, Greg Hardy, and Kia Moore carry the impressive Palos Verdes banner.

Thanks to the amazing basketball instincts of Gil Eberhard, son Steve, and Hoppy Keller, the faculty rolled to another victory in the annual Donkey Basketball Game, 50-34. The students, led by Pat Watson's 12 points, did not quite attain the heights they had aimed for, in spite of the strong performances of Dave Morris, Dave Neilan, and Jerrell Stark.

The girl's half of the team was led by Karen Breslau, who scored a personal as well as team high of 2 points, with the help of teammates Nan Williams, Chrissy Giorgio, Diana Hoff, and Johanna Staple. Senior Daryn Holland remarked, "Although we lost, the game was a lot of fun." That's about all it was.

The faculty lineup consisted of many strange and interesting looking teachers whose age and experience overcame the valiant efforts of both the student teams.

Despite an outstanding effort, students lose again

Jim Mitchell reaches for the ball while an unknown player hits the floor.

Jerrel Stark, Steve Eberhard, and Scott Jordan scramble madly to get to the ball first.

Karen Breslau scores the only two points for the girls' student team.

Valentine's Week filled with great excitement for everyone

Receiving the ball from the quarterback, Cathy Malone makes a gallant run.

Running the ball down field with grace, Kristin Bennett strives for a touchdown.

Waiting for the next play to begin, Amy Schwegler seems to be enjoying herself.

Breaking away, Monica Savo makes an important play for her team.

“They’re Playing Our Song” in 1984

The very successful fourth annual Valentine’s Formal was sponsored by the Student Activities League. The romantic decor used red, black, pink and white balloons along with pretty pink and white carnations. Streamers from the ceiling to the walls ended in a shower of hearts to set the mood for romance.

The highlight of the evening was the announcement of the Valentine’s Court. Continuing the Hardy reign, Greg Hardy was named “King of Hearts” with Princes Scott David, Chuck Swanson, Matt Newell and Mike Hamilton as his court.

After a long, hard and exhausting dress rehearsal, the cast, crew and orchestra of "Sweet Charity" take time to get together and pose for a huge group picture.

Dancers and singers in the chorus rock the stage to the "Rhythm of Life", while having fun.

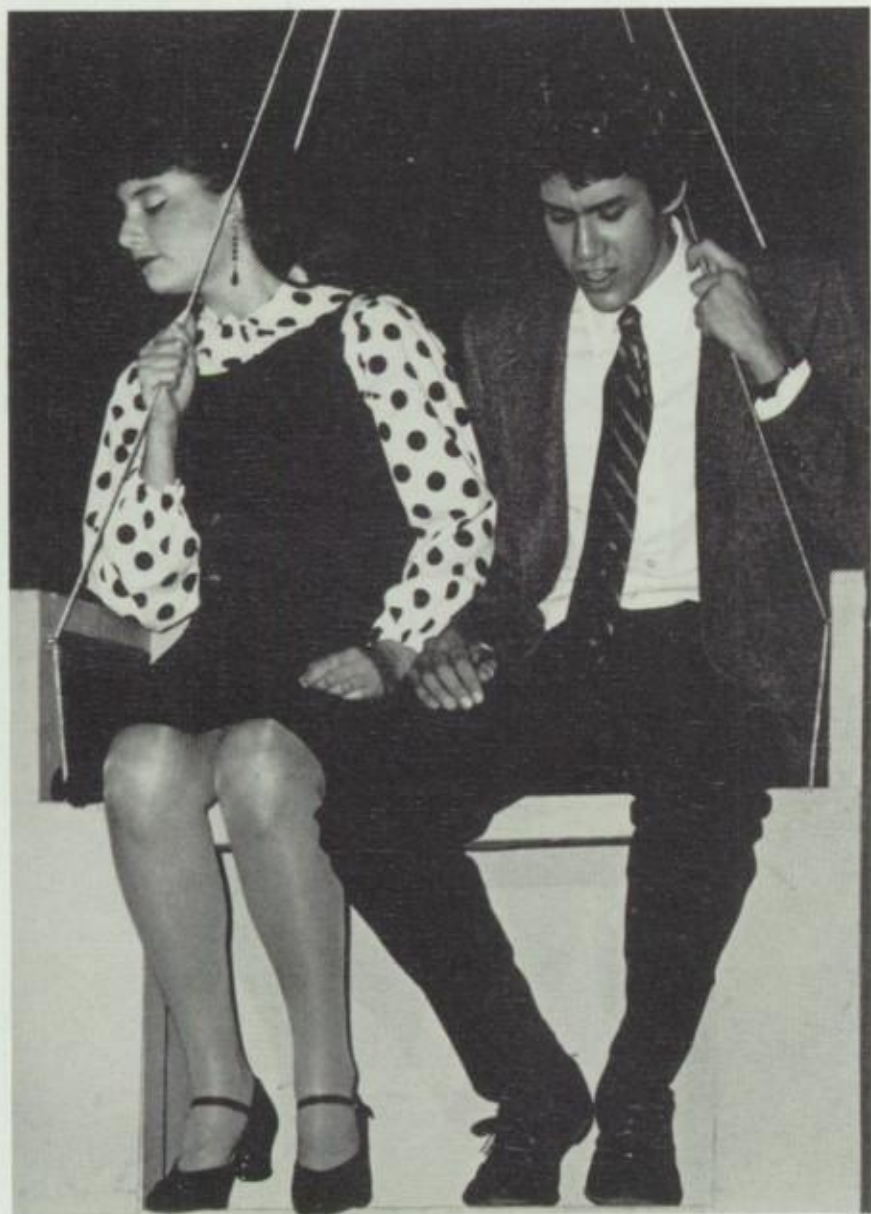

Dave Young shows little response as Kirsten Benton clings on for her life.

"Sweet Charity" lights up PV's stage with song and dance

Kirsten Benton beams with excitement after receiving gifts from movie star Clark Roberts, played by John McIntire.

Kirsten Benton and Dan Selzer enjoy the view while on a balloon ride.

This spring PV's Performing Arts Department lit up the stage with Neil Simon's musical comedy, "Sweet Charity." In this acclaimed musical, the audience follows Charity Hope Valentine throughout her adventures to find true love and happiness.

"Sweet Charity" combines a variety of dancing and singing styles from the 60's. In addition to a talented cast, ingenious sets and a dazzling orchestra played key roles in the show's success.

Capturing the lead role was Kirsten Benton, as Sweet Charity, with Dan Selzer and John McIntire playing opposite her. Other strong performances were given by Amy Ferrera, Anita Intagliata, Jill Matson, Ben Lipton, Brooke Theiss and Eric Kunzleman.

Once again, the Sophomore Class campaign to raise money, motivated all involved. This year, after a week of carrying around buckets for their favorite 'doll', the enthusiastic Sophomore boys collected over one thousand dollars, to be used in following class activities.

Many activities took place throughout the week, but most successful of all these, was the Friday night Soph doll dance, at which the winner was announced. That is, the girl who had had the most money collected for her, was awarded with the 'Soph Doll'. It was Jeannine Kilroy that managed to achieve that goal.

Posing with ragdoll is 1984 Soph Doll, Jeannine Kilroy.

During a lunch time activity, Darrel Stolz presents the Soph Doll candidates for 1984.

Soph Doll Week proves a success again!!

Happily celebrating the success of Soph Doll Week are: Adrienne Alberto, Keith Kall, Lisa Ito, Sam Yoon, Josette Blue, Scott Spearman, Ron Bornstein, Sue Combs, Darra Tolozko, and George Nager.

Walking through Senior Park, Richard Otera and Steve Abrams search for donations for their favorite Soph Doll candidate.

PV's performances really take the cake

Throughout the year, P V High School's Performing Arts Department provided the opportunity for dedicated students to develop their talents. With the help of Orchestra director, Don Marino and Choral director, Connie McIntire, the students have devoted much time to fulfill their desire to entertain others. Many performances were given by these groups: the Christmas concert and their Harlan Shoemaker performance, both taking place in December, and many others, taking place in the Spring. In years past, the Performing Arts Department has given students the chance to perform for their enjoyment and for the enjoyment of others, and will continue to do so in years to come.

SENIORS

The Senior Class left high school with many memories. Through the encouragement and dedication of the senior class officers, Class of '84 started off the year with many activities. As the year progressed, Class of '84 grew closer together as graduation neared. Senior Ditch Day at Catalina Island, Grad Night at Disneyland, and the prom really topped the whole year off.

Under the leadership of President Christine Kim, traditional activities were pursued with revived enthusiasm.

"Look out world! Here I come, ready or not!" comments wild and crazy senior Rusty Oshita.

JUNIORS

Class of '85 gives full support to class

Although a hard year academically, the juniors kept up their energy and enthusiasm.

Many of the juniors' efforts went towards raising money for the Prom. Working in unison with Class President Mike Brandmeyer, they succeeded in making the evening a great success. Brandmeyer commented, "The junior class has pulled together with characteristic support for each other."

During Homecoming Week, the juniors showed their spirit by making an excellent float to the theme of "Camelot." They also fared well during the week's activities by winning the tug-of-war competition.

SOPHOMORES

Working hard on the winning float, organizing Soph Doll Week, and raising funds were the main areas the sophomores put their excessive energy to. Class President Akemi Yamane commented, "My main goal was to make this year memorable for all of the sophomores. I think we accomplished this by winning the floatbuilding contest." Yamane continued, "Now that our class is better acquainted with each other, we have shown school spirit and enthusiasm throughout the year. The Class of '86 has a great deal of talent and determination. I think everyone had a fun year and is looking forward to two more successful years in high school."

FRESHMEN

Class of '87 has a fantastic first year

"My goal was to have the Freshman Class enjoy their first year at PV as much as possible. Through the various activities we had planned, I feel we have achieved that goal."

With this optimistic statement made by Freshman Class President, Kevin Mardesich, and with the spirit of the freshmen, they were able to have a successful first year.

The freshmen participated actively throughout the year. During Homecoming Week they enjoyed working on their first float and taking part in the many lunchtime activities.

ORGANIZATIONS

This year, the ASB and Assembly directed their efforts towards achieving two basic goals: increasing student involvement and improving school spirit. ASB President Walt Burkley stated that he felt many positive steps were taken to attain these goals and that he hoped next year's ASB will follow through on these efforts.

During the football season, the ASB focused on returning to the tradition of wearing school colors. In addition, they began a new tradition, a nighttime bonfire before the PV-RH game. ASB also sold painter's caps and held a decorating contest to arouse spirit.

As in the past, the student body officers organized the traditional formals, holiday charity drives, and lunchtime activities. However, in December something new was added: PV's first holiday semi-formal. All in all, the combined efforts of the ASB and the Assembly proved effective. Margaret Chang, ASB secretary commented, "I feel our efforts were successful. It's encouraging to see the change in school spirit."

ASB officers make a difference

Looking confused, ASB Historian Ann Bartron tries to figure out what letter comes next.

ASB Officers: Treasurer George Maxe, Historian Ann Bartron, President Walt Burkley, Secretary Margaret Chang, Vice-president Doug Murtha, Senior Class President Christine Kim.

The Student Curriculum Forum directed its efforts this year toward three major projects. First was the renovation of the PVHS slide presentation, which is shown to students attending the three local intermediate schools. The second and largest project was Creative Thought Day. As usual, the student body was presented an interesting and informative day. Lastly, hoping to make more students aware of services available, the forum organized a library survey. Commisioner of Curriculum Rob Leake summarized the year by stating, "Its success was due to its large enthusiastic and helpful membership."

PV service groups excel in endeavors

The 4th annual Valentine's Formal was only one of the several activities SAL included in its calendar this year. Others such as the Christmas Gift Drive, Harlan Shoemaker, Back-to-School Night, and pizza parties were helpful in increasing the student's participation and interest in this organization. Girl's League President Kathy Malone commented, "I was very happy to see the increase in membership, and I hope it continues."

The Academic Decathlon and the Library Advisory Committee were extremely productive this year. The seven students who participated in the Academic Decathlon won 18 personal awards including second place overall. Member Sharon Burke commented, "It was a lot of hard work, but it was worth it." The Library Committee also worked hard by increasing "student awarness of the facilities available at the Palos Verdes libraries," according to member Rob Leake. All in all, both organizations worked diligently for the pride of PVHS.

Insanity and Hershey Kisses carry staff through the year

Through the madness and insanity of room 403, the Triton Staff managed to survive another year and produce a great yearbook. Led by Editor-in-Chief Nan Williams, the large staff of 57 made every deadline, despite the agonies and crises. Having no candids, only two working typesetters and a low supply of Hershey Kisses, the staff still maintained their sanity thanks to the constant reassurance from Mrs. Linehan's words of wisdom.

Trident staff makes headlines with their reporting

In spite of equipment breakdowns, late-night deadlines, and inexperience, the Trident staff produced 14 excellent issues. Topics ranged from student government leaders and administrators to colleges, while editorials and cartoons provoked rabid reactions from the volatile student body.

"Although the staff members were young, they were eager and talented," commented Editor-in-Chief John Yeh. "Also, section editors did an outstanding job."

Honor students excel in school studies

The National Honor Society, under the leadership of President Christine Kim, is a highly respected academic organization. The required GPA for NHS members is an impressive 3.5 for juniors and 3.2 for seniors. "This year NHS provided many hours of free tutoring and other services to the school," commented Secretary Ann Bartron. Other officers included Janet Chen, vice-president; and George Maxe, treasurer.

National Honor Society: Brooke Abercrombie, Matt Arrillaga, Ann Bartron, Heather Beebe, Bill Broomhead, Sharon Burke, Walter Burkley, Margaret Chang, Patti Chang, Janet Chen, Joseph Chi, Apalla Chopra, Lor Cohen, Scott David, Andrea Goldman, Shauna Gordon, Ronna Hall, Willies Han, Mike Kato, Christine Kim, Marlys Kinnel, Leland Lai, Rob Leake, Nancy Lim, George Maxe, Kathy McManus, Danny Mishell, Doug Murtha, Ron Richards, Georgiana Rosenkranz, Kaoruko Seki, Betty Shen, Johanna Staple, Liesl Teske, Jenny Tsao, Cathy Lynn Tylka, Peter Winzen, Rose Wu, Christine Yang, John Yeh.

The California Scholarship Federation is an honorary academic club open to seniors, juniors, and sophomores. This year's president was senior Rose Wu. Although CSF did not perform any service projects, it did recognize the outstanding students of our school. To be eligible for CSF, there was a requirement of 10 points based on a special grading scale.

The German Club filled their year with a lot of activities by going to Magic Mountain and holding many bake sales. Also, "all the new people made the club a lot of fun this year plus helped us earn more money," commented President Cathy Cole on the club's record enrollment.

The Oriental Culture Club also made trips to Magic Mountain and had a New Year's party. President Sally Chang said, "We participated in many fun activities that had to do with the oriental culture."

The Spanish Club kept up its tradition and had a great year with many new members who made the club a lot more exciting. President Deanne Toomajian said the club's year was "estupendo."

The Greek Club also had another fun filled year. They planned a trip to a television studio and sold their traditional Greek-kabobs.

Clubs of many lands excite and expand

The Astronomy Club is especially for those people who are interested in the study of the cosmos, including the stars and the galaxies. The Star Party was the major activity of the club; members, with the aid of telescopes, searched the heavens for elements of the cosmos. Field trips, bake sales, films and seminars by guest speakers were other outgoing activities and functions of the club. President Christopher Endres stated, "Star Parties, pan Galactic Gargle Blasters and the Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy all make up the Astronomy Club with the enriching, fun activities and the enjoyable companionship of others with the same interests."

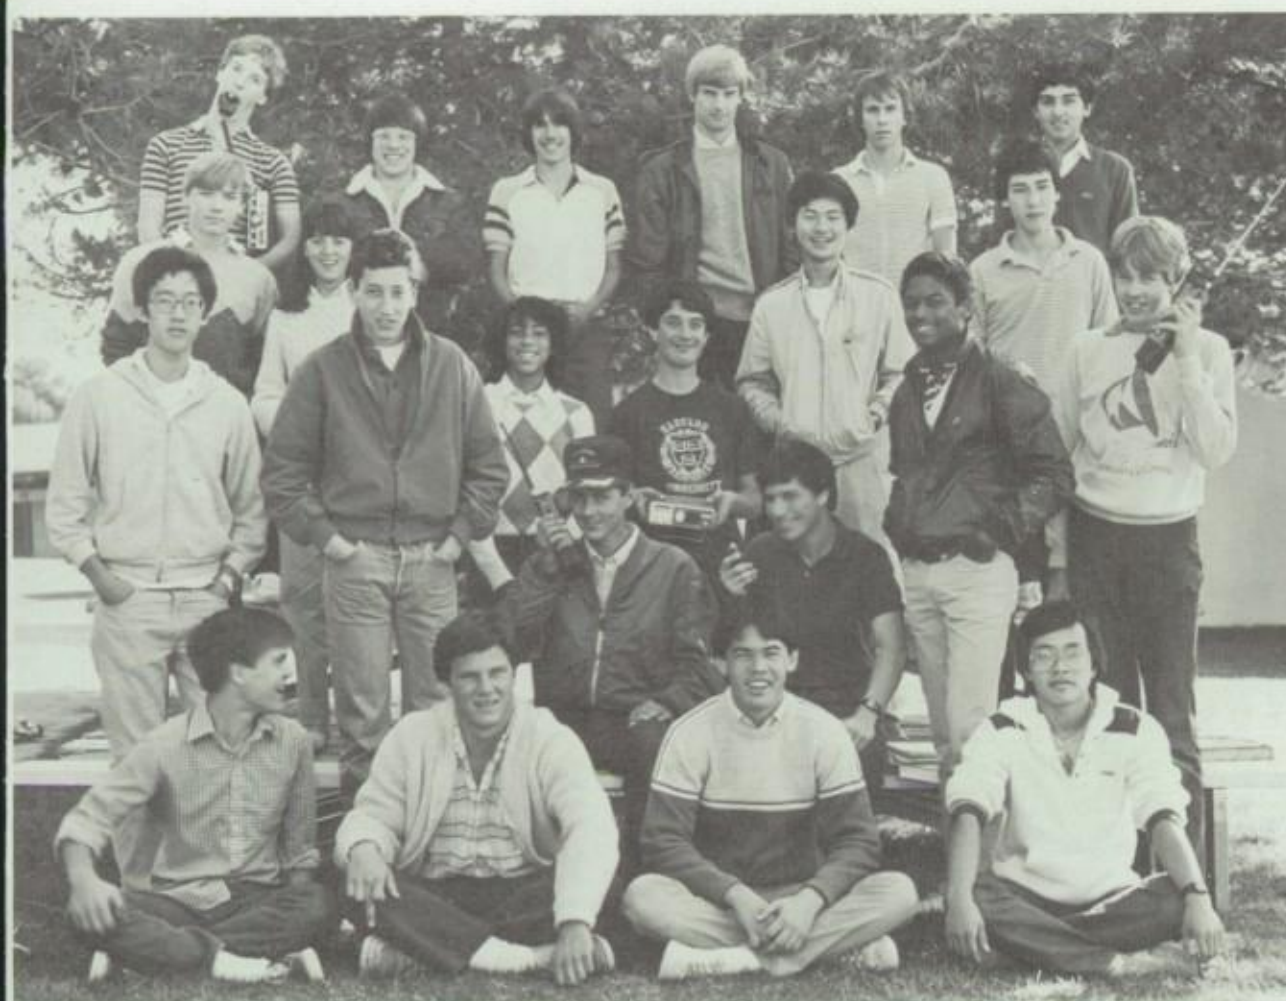

With two goals in mind, "To try and promote political awareness on campus and to give students who are interested in politics a chance to learn about it by doing service for different political groups and lobbying on political issues," President Brian Rourke kept very busy. The club invited Democratic political candidates to speak.

Technical clubs have an active year

The High Tech Club was started to provide a forum for students interested in new advances in technology. Contrary to popular belief, members do not walk around with slide rules and calculators all the time. High-Tech included everything from new cars to the latest video games. Throughout the year, many meetings were held and a laser show was planned. Club President Mark Chatow said "For a new club, I feel that we have done pretty well."

Contrary to most high school student's feelings about math, the math club's theme was "Math is fun." Not only did they think it was enjoyable, but they also enjoyed competing in it. In the first of four contests this year, PV took fourth place at the Bay League Math Contest held at Rolling Hills. President Todd Yoshikawa stated the purpose of the club: "It gives people who like math a chance to do what they do best."

Clubs of mind and skill attract many PV students

Led by their "galactic overlord," Rob Leake, the Strategic Games Club had a very active year. In addition to sponsoring "Risk and Diplomacy" tournaments, they ran a "Dungeons and Dragons" campaign and played numerous other war games. They also planned a trip to a major gaming convention. Leake commented, "There was a large active membership, and it was fun defeating them in all the games we played."

Another promising organization is the Oriental Chess Club. Advisor Mrs. Kuno and President Willies Han are optimistic about the future. Han was especially pleased with the membership this year. He noted, "Because of the surprisingly good turnout, we're very enthusiastic and will look forward to future years."

Although the Bridge Club was only a year old and did not produce a large turnout, Advisor James Ryono is optimistic. He stated that he hopes to generate interest and eventually play competitive bridge against other schools. If this year's enthusiasm was any indication, the Bridge Club will be around for a very long time.

The Table Tennis Club promised to be one of the fastest growing new clubs. Founder and President Robert Chang commented, "Our tournament was very successful and hopefully we'll start playing interscholastically in the future." Chang was enthusiastic and confident about the club's future, and all members are looking forward to a great second year.

Service clubs complete another fantastic year

This year marked another terrific one for both S-Club and Delphinians. Each group expressed their enthusiasm through their many activities and service projects. Delphinians started off with a renewed sense of spirit and carried it on throughout the year. Some of their many activities included ushering shows, visiting convalescent homes, and participating in Harlan Shoemaker. Co-presidents Georgiana Rosenkranz and Janet Chen stated that this year, greater enthusiasm and unity enabled the club to accomplish more. S-Club, who was on probation for the first semester, concentrated their efforts on service projects. Club President Ann Bartron commented, "It was tough being on probation the first semester, but it pulled us together and made S-Club stronger."

Although the Omegans were one of the smaller service clubs, they have worked diligently on their community projects. This year, many of their efforts were centered on the RPV Park and Recreation Program for the Mentally Retarded. They also catered for the NHS tea and helped raise money for the Junior Blind.

The Spartans also contributed to many service projects this year. They visited convalescent homes, donated money to the cancer society, and sent $22 a month to a needy child. They also put on a fashion show in the spring and had many bake sales to raise funds for the club.

Serving the school and community for over 20 years, Key Club represents a portion of the service minded students at PVHS. Led by President Doug Murtha, the club helped distribute PV phone books to RPV and worked at the PV marathon. Another major contribution was their campus clean-ups.

Successful as always, Lettermans enjoyed another great year. President Pat Watson supervised the service projects, which were playing in Donkey Basketball and cleaning the campus.

As usual, Keyettes worked hard impressing their school and community. Keyettes celebrated Halloween as witches and sold "Dapple Apples". With the help of President Moira Winzen, they also organized a successful Christmas boutique.

Because of their outstanding number of participants, Interact made all their service projects more exciting and spent hours cleaning the campus and the cliffs of the peninsula. They also supported a child in Ethiopia.

Dancers prove their extreme ability

Orchesis continued its excellent dance history with talent and fun-loving spirit under the leadership of Madeline Bilkey and officers Cindy Clancy, Alice Tsai, Natonjha Wright, and Peri Andrus.

Jazz Dancers had another fantastic year while sharpening their incredible talent and enthusiastic effort. This year's captain, Annmarie Sinclair, proved to be a very inspirational and exceptional leader.

Jazz Dancers: Front Row: Suzi Butnam, Sally Chang, Lisa Corricello. 2nd Row: Rachel Shishido, Rachel Kattlove, Annmarie Sinclair, Cathy O'Brien. 3rd Row: Natonjha Wright, Peri Andrus, Alice Tsai.

Performers give a great performance

Both dance groups held their annual show, which again proved successful because of the commitment given by both groups.

Pep Band kept up their style and talent with concerts and performances throughout the year. Everyone enjoyed their "sound" at the 40's Fling.

During its successful year, Drill Team danced its way to two sweepstakes, three first place trophies, and one second place. As a result of winning first place in a national competition, some Drill Team members received a two-week, all-expense-paid trip to Japan, where they performed at various festivals and on television. In return, the Drill Team hosted the "International Dinner," honoring the drill teams of foreign countries.

The small precision groups of the Drill Team, which included Dance, Novelty, Prop, and Military, also took first and second places at national, state, and area competitions.

Captain Michelle Duclos, competing against 58 other girls in California, placed in the top five, earning her the chance to compete in Miss Drill Team USA.

The Drill Team will finish out its terrific year by performing in the opening and closing ceremonies of the Olympics.

Lights! Camera! Action! The Drama Department got off to a fantastic start with their Fall Musical "Godspell," which was a brilliant success. This production was the first fall musical in school history. The department continued their success with "Sweet Charity," the popular spring musical.

The Hunting and Fishing Club met weekly to discuss hunting and fishing trips. The members worked on obtaining their hunting licenses by passing the Hunter Safety Course. They also hoped to take field trips if the school administration would allow it.

The newly formed Comic Book Club sparked enthusiasm among comic book collectors. The club attended comic book conventions and kept track of the ever changing world of comic book collecting. Co-founder Mike Mitzenmacher commented, "This club really broadened my horizons, whereas before I had only limited access to comic books."

Clubs retain identity with projects

The Breakfast Club: Ground: Peter Olson, Cliff McArthur, Pat Watson, Ted Marsh. Standing: Bret Henbest, Scott (The Fly) McKissock, Tom Vogt, David Morris, Tyler Flood. Tree: Scott David, Hendrik Falk.

The Breakfast Club, the fanatic belly stuffing club of the Varsity cross-country runners, met one morning weekly to terrorize the Peninsula on foot before consuming massive amounts of Froot Loops topped with only the finest imported ales. David Morris and Cliff McArthur commented, and many of the members agreed, "It's (burp) totally awwesum!"

The Art Club kept busy this year by selling their works at winter and spring art sales. "We had fun and earned money for the Art Scholarship Fund," said President Lois Yu. They also planned a See's candy sale.

Athletic clubs receive a large turnout

Even though the Ski Club failed to convince the administration to permit a ski trip, they had fun with other activities. Members learned about equipment, tune-ups, and watched ski films. Vice-president Bob Bingham commented, "From our years of expertise, we, the Ski Club, solemnly swear 'Independence' from the weekend 'Ski-er'."

The Volleyball Club is made up of both the girls' and boys' teams, and others who have an interest in playing either beach or indoor volleyball.

President Alice Tsai, Vice-presidents Jeannine Kilroy and Amy Rubincam, and Secretary Jill Harper organized a volleyball marathon. The money raised was used for new volleyball equipment and uniforms.

Throughout the school year, Palos Verdes High School Model United Nations competed at over six conferences throughout the state and even the prestigious National Georgetown University Conference. Competition this year was stiff, and with a large turnout of new members, PVHS MUN held up very well. The leadership of Secretary General Rob Leake and his top assistant Lori Cohen led the club through many hectic lunch meetings, UCLA trips, and conferences. Countries represented this year included the US, USSR, Israel, France, China, Lesotho, and Libya among others.

Under the guidance of Coach Jeff Bornstein, the Forensics Club competed at the UCLA Forensic Tournament in October and received two trophies. The ten member team also received numerous trophies and certificates of award at both Novice and Varsity league tournaments.

International Exchange Students: Jason Southerland, Bobby McCallum, Jonas Carlsson, Javier Sagredo.

The International Exchange Club assisted its exchange students in becoming acquainted with the school and the community environment. They arranged trips to see the sights and entertainment facilities which are nationally known and also provided the graduating exchange students with the school yearbook and the fees for all graduation activities.

Clubs for boards leave none bored!

Under the guiding hands of President Eric Simon and sponsor Walter Donahue, the Industrial Arts Club met almost daily at lunch, making the Woodshop available to students who had no access to it otherwise. Planned activities included spring barbeques.

The Boardgames Club boggled the mind by monopolizing the game playing population of PVHS." However, no money is involved", said President Denise Yusefmir, "We just have fun." The club specialized in Backgammon, Othello, and Chess.

Unending spirit of Pep Squad boosts Sea King morale

1983-84 was a year in which Pep Squad worked with unending effort and determination to boost school spirit and morale. Along with attending major PV sports events, they also held pep rallies at lunch and were present at Harlan Shoemaker.

Outstanding leadership was shown by Pep Squad president Julie Best, Head Flagtwirler Karen Breslau, Head Songleader Nan Williams, and Head Cheerleader Marjorie Stone. They made this year an exciting and memorable one.

Pep Squad does its best to keep a smile on every face and Sea King spirit in every heart.

Flagtwirlers: Karen Breslau, Jill Bredehorn, Kristin Mueller, Diane Murtha.

Blocking the holes, John Wang, Nam Cho, and Andy Wilhelm run in to pursue the play in spite of the RH offensive line.

While PV kicks off, Mark Stofila, Don Humphrey, and Dom Militello hit a Centennial return man.

Led by Tri-captains John Lukrich, John Wang, and John Rafuse, the Palos Verdes Varsity football team finished the season with a record of 2-5, coming in fourth overall in the Bay League. With few returning Varsity players and a new system, the team performed well under pressure. Under the instruction of Coach Bill Judy and Coach Alan King, the team played tough and kept up good spirit throughout the season.

As Chris Steskal holds up a South player, Chris Schotts moves into assist.

Fooling the defense on a draw, Scott Recknor hands off to John Yoon for a gain.

Preparing the way, Andy Wilhelm opens up a path for John Yoon into the endzone.

Bay League (2-5)

Finishing with a record of 5-1-1, the Sophomore football squad came in second in the Bay League. Continuing its dominance on the field, the team was filled with Varsity material. Jackson Wang, Brian Connors, Sam Yoon, Dean Decker and Mike Amaral led the team to victories with their skillful play. This year's coaches, Ken Russell, Jim McConologue and Brant Blakemen helped develop the team's potential. The highlights of the season were the victories over Santa Monica and North.

Preparing to block, Darin Hagan rushes toward the line as Sam Yoon takes a hand-off from quarterback Dean Decker.

New to the competition of high school football, the boys' freshman team had a disappointing year, finishing with a record of 2-6. In spite of this poor start, Coach Gil Eberhard sees potential for the future, especially in MVP's Derek Capper and John Milam. Other strong players worth watching for were Hayden Harmon, Austin Peters, Chris Miller, and Steve Hillis. The high point of the season came when the freshmen demolished Mira Costa, 38-6.

In spite of a valiant effort, a struggling Chris Miller gets taken down by Santa Monica defenders.

Finishing a well-played season, the Girls' Varsity team placed 5th overall. Capturing the MVP was Molly Gleason who led the team to an impressive season. Most Improved was awarded to Betsy Lohrer and Most Inspirational was awarded to Alice Tsai. Senior Alice Tsai and sophomore Jill Harper led the team with their setting abilities. Hitting power was supplied by Molly Gleason and Liz White. Betsy Lohrer and Eva Burkley provided excellent middle blocking while Deanne Toomajian, Abby Gleason, Kristin Chaisson, and Karen Goodman contributed a strong defense. Serving was a strong point for senior Cricket Mulkey. Coached by Ray Nunn, the team showed great potential throughout the competitive season.

Led by captain Jill Campbell, JV Volleyball team had a successful season. With this year's addition of Freshman team, Sea King coach Teri Bateman was able to develop new talents.

Alone as usual, Pat Watson maintains his lead ahead of the pack.

With encouragement from Coach Flagler, Tom Vogt strains down the final stretch of the PV course.

The Varsity cross-country team, led by Co-captains Pat Watson and Scott David, finished first in league and twelfth in CIF. The year was highlighted with Watson setting a new course record. When asked about the season, Coach Joe Kelly replied, "We had a great season because everyone stuck together and never gave up."

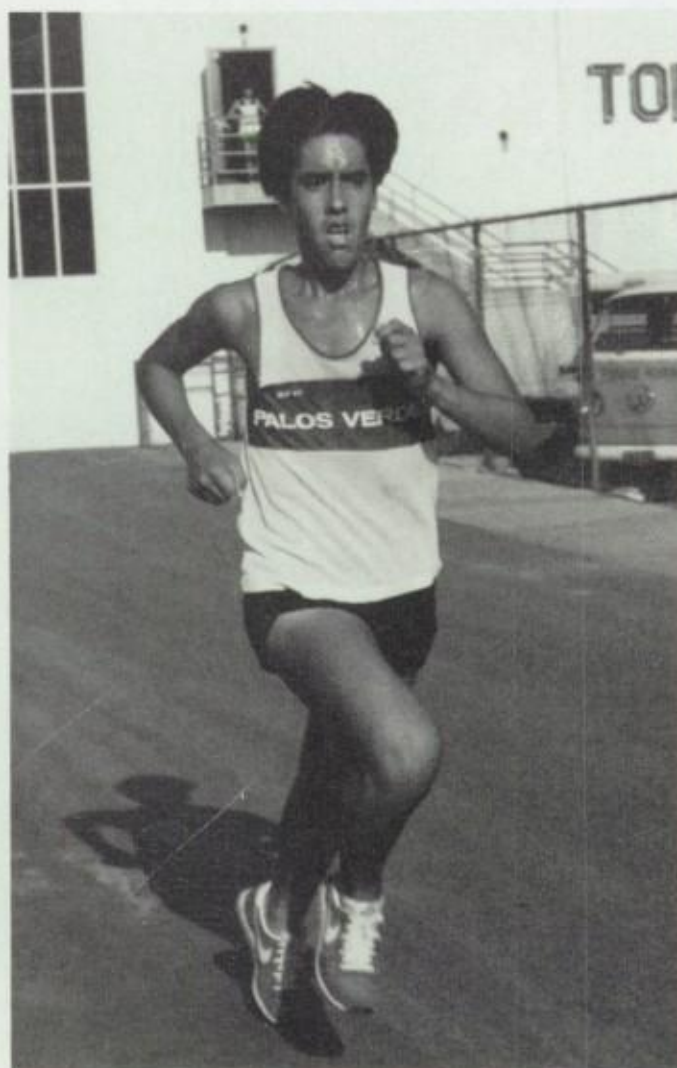

The JV cross-country team had a very successful year as they went on to take league as well. Led by Ted Marsh and Rafael Solis, the JV team finished 7-0 in league.

Top juniors returning are Tom Vogt, Hendrik Falk, and Peter Olson.

About to take on Agony Hill, Dan Skagen and Steve Tauber push the limits of their endurance.

Giving his best effort, Dan Tokaji works the final mile of the race.

Running with determination, Aaron Black stays ahead of his opponents. Straining hard to keep ahead of his competitor from Torrance is David Dudman.

Led by MVP Skylor Piper and close competitors Victor Furer and David Dudman, the Freshman team went undefeated in all Bay League meets except one. It wasn't until the last meet of the year, at the Bay League finals, that they lost their only race which put them into second place overall. With the many strong runners on the team, they are expected to do very well next year when they are Sophomores.

Boys' Sophomore cross country had an outstanding season and finished first in Bay League with a 6-1 overall record. Being very close competitively, the best runners included MVP Patrick Arrillaga, Richard Blanco, David Smith, Mike Snider, Gerald Timbol, and Kevin Lowry, who had to leave halfway through the season because of a heart problem. The team was very supportive of itself, which helped the Sophomores along to a strong victory at the Bay League finals.

Frosh and Soph teams finish strongly in Bay League

Straining to stay ahead of Patrick Arrillaga, Richard Blanco finishes the race.

Staying ahead of Ryan Murphy and a runner from North, Chris Driscoll proves that being small doesn't mean being slow.

Coached by Joe Kelly and Rod Flagler, the Girls' Varsity Cross Country team had an outstanding season finishing first in Bay League. Excellent performances by Kirsten O'Hara, Stacey O'Hara, and Chris Rowley contributed to the second place finish in CIF.

Also undefeated in Bay League competition, the Girls' JV team had a perfect record of 7-0. Some promising runners include Meghan Simmons and Terry Wilson.

Coach Flagler commented, "Few other schools are as fortunate to have the wealth and depth of talent as we have on our Girls' Varsity and JV teams."

Running towards the finish line, two-time CIF champ Kirsten O'Hara reaches the final stretch.

Girls' Varsity captures CIF title

Undefeated in Bay League competition, the Girls' Varsity tennis team finished first in its division. With an outstanding record of 23-1, the Sea Kings beat Miraleste in the CIF finals with a score of 10-8. Representing the team in the CIF individuals were Stella Sampras and Denay Dierks in doubles and Andrea Williams and Cammy Mac Gregor in singles.

Team Captain Debbie Abrams commented on the superior depth of the PV team, "I feel we did so well because of our team unity and great coaching."

Also finishing first in Bay League the girls' JV finished with a perfect record of 16-0. Coach John Fullerton was extremely impressed and hopes next year will be just as successful.

PV Varsity sweeps Rolling Hills in 1983-84 season

Finishing with a record of 11-3 in Bay League this year, the Boys' Varsity basketball team kept up their winning tradition, making it into the CIF playoffs once again. Under the strong leadership of Coach John Mihaljevich and co-captains Greg Hart and John Koyama, the team rolled to victories over every league opponent except Santa Monica, who went undefeated in Bay League. The high points of the season came with two overtime victories over arch-rival Rolling Hills.

The Junior Varsity team also had an impressive season, under the fine coaching of Mike Boyd and the leadership of key players Scott Recknor, GM Broucek, and Brian Dwyer. The team constantly surprised and defeated their opponents with their strong defense and their well-executed offensive play.

After a strong season last year, Sophomores struggle...

The PV sophomore basketball team completed an energetic, high-spirited season, finishing in third place in Bay League this season. Led by co-captains Barry Hartley and Scott Tredennick, the team finished with a record of 16 wins and 8 losses overall. Scott Tredennick, who led the team in scoring, was voted MVP for the season. Another great asset to the team, center Dean Decker, gave great inspiration and consistently good play throughout the year.

The season, as Rich Otera put it, "was really not all we could have wanted, but we all tried the best to make the team run smoothly and efficiently. The coach, Doug Mitchell, really helped us realize the flaws in our playing and how to try and work them out. I think that we did respectably well in the season overall."

Concentrating intently, Scott Tredennick puts in a free throw for the Sea Kings.

Reaching for the ball, Jim Matteoni struggles to win the jump ball against a taller Centennial player.

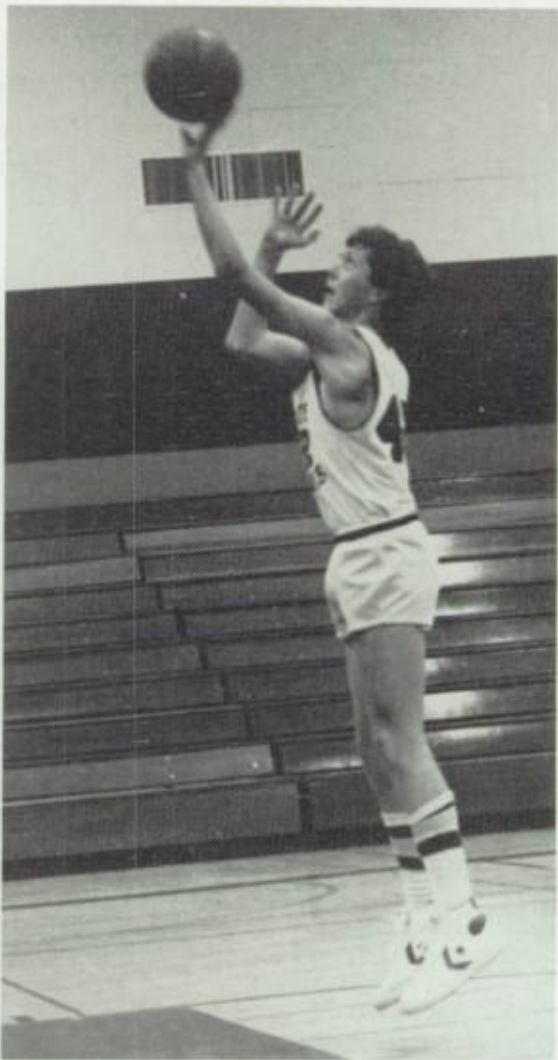

The Palos Verdes freshman basketball team, in spite of strong hopes and good potential, had a disappointing season. They finished with a record of 3-11 in League play; yet even though their record didn't show it, the freshmen have a lot of potential, especially in forward Jason Taylor and guard-forward Greg Whitley. Guards Ray Landero and John Brown also exhibited strong, consistent play.

Jumping over his opponent's reach, Jason Taylor goes for two with help from teammate Chris Pelton.

The Girls' Varsity Basketball Team had a good but disappointing season. Although Captain Julia Perles and Co-Captains Molly Gleason and Chris Rowley gave impressive performances, the team's record was 7-7. Perles commented, 'It was disappointing to work so hard and have a record that didn't show it.' Next year promises to be a good season for the Sea Kings, to be led by Diane Sakamoto and Patti O'Brien.

The Junior Varsity Team, led by sophomores Colleen Nolan and Captain Jennie Parsa, was also successful in its endeavors. Besides reaching the Consolation Championship in the Culver City Tournament, the team made the most of their new talent. Contributing much to the JV team were freshmen Carolyn King, Suzie O'Grady and Elena Fernandez.

Bay League(6-3-2)

Discussing team strategy, Coach King tells his players their new plan of attack.

Boys' soccer had a tough season this year. Led by captains Jon Rafuse and Chris Kramer, PV was hoping to do as well this year as they had done in the previous years. But this was not to be, for the team lost some close games and did not qualify for CIF. The team finished fourth in Bay League. Cam Tredennick had an outstanding year with 14 shut-outs, which tied a PV record. Leading the defense was sweeper Nam Cho while the offense was led by leading scorer Jon Rafuse. Even though they did not do as well as they had expected, the season gave the players memories that they will remember for the rest of their lives

Placing second in Bay League with a record of 7-2-3, the JV team carried on the winning tradition at PV. Leading scorer Scott Strenk was supported by forward line, Rob Wardell and Tim Button. In addition to doing well in Bay League, JV also put out a fine effort in the Edison Tournament.

Frosh-Soph soccer had a good year in Bay League as well as in its outside tournaments. Consistent play was given by Tom Connaghan, Mike Norby, Brad Amico and goalie, Derek Capper. The talented players on Frosh-Soph will contribute greatly to next year's JV team.

With an impressive record of 6-2-2, the JV soccer team finished first in Bay League. The team started slowly, but as the year progressed, the JV team's spirit and unity became evident in their game.

The Varsity soccer team finished the season with a record of 4-5-3. The team had some excellent games showing its skills and dexterity. The points scored this year were contributed by the persistent forward line: Alison Miller, Ann Vasey, and the leading scorer, Stephanie Poncher. Consistent play was given by sweeper, Stacey O'Hara, and goalie, Janice Kasai.

In his first year at PV, Coach Fritz Samoth blamed lack of spirit and ability to play as a team as reasons for the Varsity Team's losses.

Inspite of a disappointing start, the Boys' Varsity tennis team professed strong hopes for the future. Led by number one singles player Scott Tredennick, only a sophomore, and number one doubles team Kurt Kredel and Andrew Chekian, both juniors, the team's obvious strong point is that all of its best players will be returning next year. Other strong singles players were Scott Spearman, Mike Brandmeyer, and Mark Germann, who are also juniors. In addition, consistently good doubles performances were turned in by seniors Mike Lindberg and Captain Mike Payne, who stated, "This is the most well-balanced team I've ever been on in my four years at PV. I have a lot of confidence in us."

Once again, Coach John Fullerton leads PV tennis through a fine season

The JV team, led by the consistent play of top singles player Steve Abrams and the outstanding doubles play of Bill Wilson and Doug Linehan, also had a disappointing start but has high hopes for future seasons. Coach John Fullerton is confident that the JV will provide strong players for the Varsity for many years to come.

Reaching for the ball, Steve Abrams hits a winner.

Coaches Jim Mitchell and Lynn Berri were pleased with the support and enthusiasm of the team. Coach Mitchell commented, "I was pleased with the outcome of this year. The girls showed spectacular performances and next year is sure to be a promising one."

The Palos Verdes Gymnastics team started off the year with a perfect record of 7-0. Strong performances were consistently turned in by Freshman Debbie Berger, PV's number one all around gymnast (competing in all four events). The other top all around gymnasts were Senior Captain Karen Young, and Juniors, Donna Buckley, Monica Mac, and Lisa Prescott.

Golf team was a swinging success story

This year's golf team experienced notable success throughout Bay League competition. With strong leadership by golfers Marshall Carr, Joe Goswitz, and Pete Gustafson the team had some great victories. Its only real challenge came from longtime rival Rolling Hills.

With exceptional precision, Doug Castile takes a big swing.

Showing his great skills, Scott Widdifield tees off with his superb form.

Finishing off his swing, Pete Gustafson follows through on his drive.

Squinting his eyes, Marshall Carr searches for his ball.

Using his superior jumping ability, senior Bill Thompson smashes to another victory.

Giving their full efforts, the Junior Varsity team attempts to save the ball.

Varsity team proves to be strong

Waiting for a set from junior Scott Mumby, teammate Gordon Shiring goes up for an ominous smash.

After a strong year, the Varsity volleyball team performed exceptionally well. The team was comprised of underclassmen who will be important veterans in future years. All the players performed well, and their team work paid off.

Bill Thompson, Scott Mumby and Mark Goodale were key offensive players. Setters Mumby and Casey LaScala, Dave Stefanides, Tom Melton, Rob Chang, Gordon Shiring, Mike Barker and George Rankin contributed to the all-around excellence of the team. Under Coach Ray Nunn, PV's volleyball program holds promise for improvement and strength in the coming years.

Meanwhile, the JV team showcased strong performances by John Chen, Mike Barker and John Tsao. The team improved steadily as the season progressed. The JV team expects to improve and have another winning season. Coach Wendell Yoshida is looking forward to next year, which holds the promise of some outstanding play.

Getting up high for a block are junior Dave Stefanides and his teammate Tom Melton.

Varsity track runs through another successful year

Straining for the win, Peter Olson gives it his best.

Jumping over the bar, Ted Shieh sets a new school record in the pole vault.

Showing excellent form, Greg Monteilh flies over another hurdle.

Palos Verdes Varsity track has always been a contender in the past and has continued to supply competition in 84. Led by veteran coaches Joe Kelly and Rod Flagler, this year's team has lived up to its potential.

Outstanding performances were turned in by Pat Watson in distance, Greg Monteilh in hurdles, John Raffle in sprints, and Mike Hillis in long jump. These athletes contributed to a team effort which brought much excitement to this year's season.

Pat Watson, beating his opposition one more time, slides out for the last leg of the race.

Determined to win, Steve Tauber runs hard.

3rd Row: John Christensen, Mike Mitzenmacher, Jeff Asch, Jim Rayor, Dennis Shay, Scott Malquest, Paul Sterling, Skylor Piper, Steve Beck, Eric Shore, Alex Horeczko.

Boys' Sophomore track did very well this year, with fine performances given by many who moved up to the varsity level. The season was highlighted by victories over Rolling Hills and Mira Costa, and a narrow victory over West.

Fine performances were also given by members of the Freshman team. Skylor Piper did exceptionally well and should prove to be a great distance runner. Palos Verdes also did very well in field events.

Frosh and Soph teams show future promise in Bay League

Denise Byrnes, Kristen Falk, Patricia Sinay, Erin Kelly, Casey Choate, Karen Noguchi, Kimi Warden, Liz Lyon, Tracy Kwiker, Liz Malone.

Finishing her sprint, Kimi Warden feels the thrill of victory by winning her race.

Misty Yoshikawa strains to keep her pace as Casey Choate and Julie Napolitan quickly close in on her.

Girls' Varsity track: best in many years

Led by Captains Kirsten O'Hara, Stacey O'Hara, and Vicki Masten the Girls' Varsity track team had many promising victories. Kirsten O'Hara was definitely the most valuable distance runner. Other strong track members were Kirsten Bennet and Kimi Warden. Coach Joe Kelly was quoted as saying, "This is the strongest Girls' Varsity team we've had in years."

Number one runner Kirsten O'Hara wins her race, the two mile, with an incredibly fast time.

Girls' JV Track: First Row: Lori Benuinisti, Karen Goodman, Traci Cowan, Lori Tillotson, Heather Rafuse. 2nd Row: Nadia Solis, Carrie Moore, Wendy Price, Jennifer Brown, Debbie Klein, Kristen Nelson, Nancy Cho, Kristen Dunlap, Becky Merrell, Terry Wilson, Janet Gross, Tracy Booth, Erin Criss, Jenny Liu, Paula DiNoto. 3rd Row: Kelly Van Horn, Allison Dallenbach, Deidre Miller, Lana Yu, Lois Yu, Kerry Kuwahara, Laurie Pickel, Sue Wang, Kellie Hourigan, Debbie

Boy's swim teams are successful at beating their rivals

Pulling along, Rusty Oshita win the breast stroke event far ahead of his opponents.

Kicking furiously, Danny Mishell backstrokes ahead of his tough opponents.

Swimming in the butterfly event, Erik Nelson strokes towards the finish to win first place in the heat.

Swim team had an excellent season. For the varsity, Dave Rankine, defending Bay League Champion, was a great strength for the team. Danny Mishell, Andre Vuilleumier exhibited their talent for backstroke throughout the year. Dave Tanner had a great season by winning second place in the breast stroke in Bay League. In the butterfly, Kurt Fredericks was also a great strength.

Swimming for the Frosh-Soph team, Bruce Mackey and Chris Mabli did well in the long-distance freestyle races. Chris Cypert was an important asset for the team in breast stroke. Mike Kuehl and Jay Hagan also did well in the freestyle sprints and individual medley races. Swimming the butterfly, Will Herndon and John Hall had great seasons. Both swim teams had great years: Varsity coming in third place overall in Bay League, Frosh-Soph winning many meets.

Sim Hixson, Dave Tanner, Bobby McCallum, Dan Dowling, Carlos Juelle, Kurt Fredericks, John Redd.

Nicole Vuilleumier, Jody Stuhlbarg, Lisa Goldman, Janet Busso, Julie Rankine, Mary Perry, Amy Beal, Robin Winston, Co-captain Chris Hagan.

"This is the quickest team that we've had at PV in the past six years," commented Coach Jean Myhre.

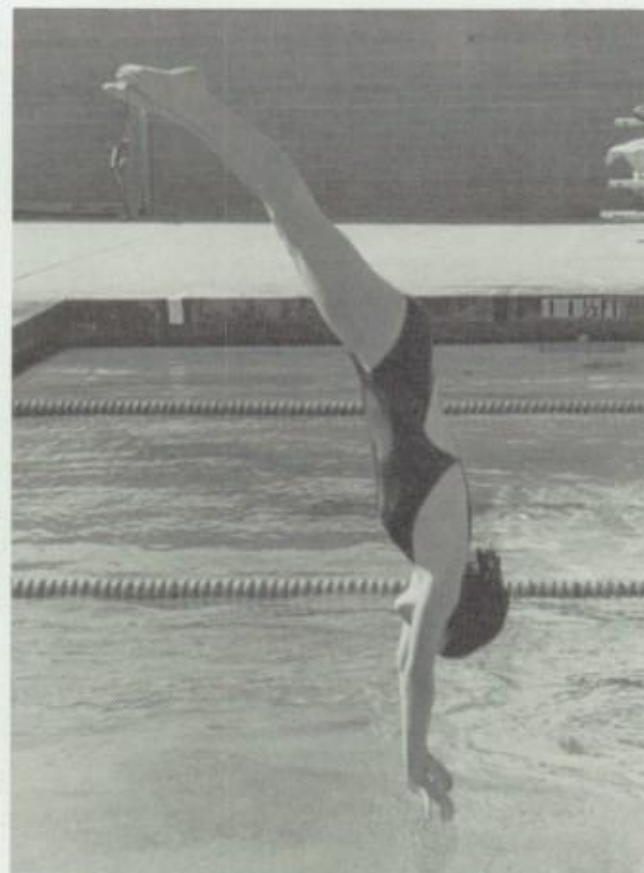

Outstanding performances were swum by Co-captains Chris Hagan and Chris Rowley; juniors Janet and Karen Ramirez; sophomores DeAnne Twidwell and Lisa Goldman and freshmen Julie Rankine and Amy Thompson.

Leading the way for PV High, senior Co-captain Chris Rowley shows her competitiveness.

Swimmers continue their winning ways

Stroking to the finish, sophomore freestyle champ DeAnne Twidwell wins another terrific race. Showing her excellent form, Elyse Carson scores highly.

PV Baseball works for team success

The PV Varsity baseball team, led by Co-captains Obaid Khan and Ed Chevalier had a solid season. Showing their talent in the infield were Khan and Chris Schotts, with great backup from Dom Millitello and Chuck Eallonardo, as well as strong pitching from Scott Recknor. The outfield was also successful under the strong guidance of junior John Yoon. Also contributing in the outfield were Scott Giordanella and Chris Davis.

Watching the pitch, senior Obaid Khan takes a good lead-off from first base.

Waiting for the pitch, Catcher Ed Chevalier gives the pitcher a good target.

Showing great form, Doug Russell throws number three across the plate.

With much agility, Chuck Eallonardo attempts to pick off a runner at first base.

Moving at great speeds, Chris Schotts runs to first.

JV Baseball: Front Row: Colm Gallagher, Peter Kaye, Sam Yoon, Matt Brannan, Rob Antroblus, Jon Berger, Pat Paloucci. 2nd row: Coach Judy, Curt Beeson, Scott Strenk, Garrett Frantz, Rich Carosso, GM Broucek, Adam Weyne, Scott Strahle.

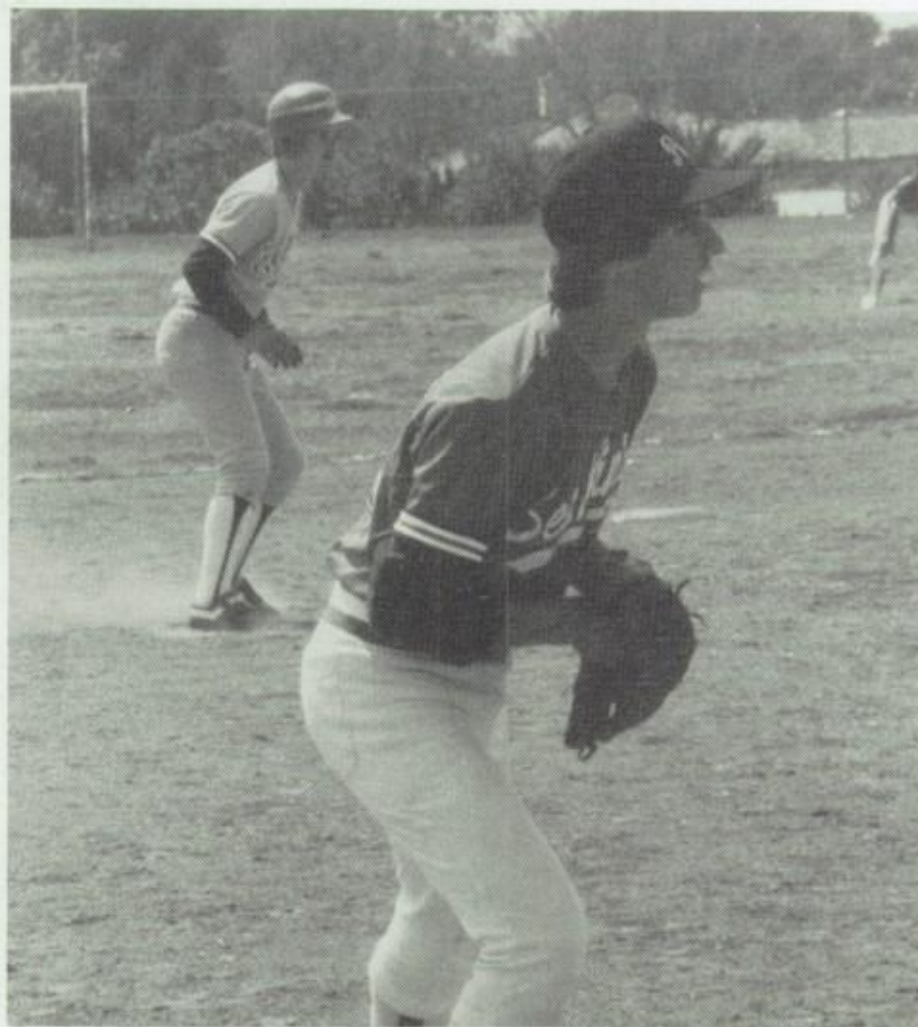

Using all his might and determination, Peter Kaye swings for the back fence.

Trying to advance a runner, Pat Paloucci eyes the ball as a teammate looks on.

Experience, pitching, and skill benefit JV and Frosh/Soph

Winding up for an excellent pitch, Mike Calvert prepares to strike another one out.

Anticipating a play to second, George Michel keeps the runner on his base.

Starting the year off with great coaching and an experienced lineup, JV baseball did well this year. In Bay League they had many outstanding games showing skill and dexterity, as well as their representation in their outside tournaments. Starting pitchers: Scott Strahle, Adam Weyne, and Garrett Frantz put on some nice performances and many key plays were made by catcher, Jon Berger.

This year the Frosh/Soph baseball did better than expected in outside and Bay League play. Gregg Jahelka, Billy Dougherty, and Derek Capper led their team who generally looked very strong this year.

Softball faces tough Bay League competition

Varsity Softball: Front Row: Ellen Winer, Lissy Friedman, Ann Vasey, Suzy O'Grady, Elena Fernandez. 2nd Row: Karen

Jacobson, Molly Gleason, Abby Gleason, Denise De Carli, Tara Berta, Jenny Parsa, Coach Becky Fields.

Senior captain Molly Gleason keeps her eyes peeled on an incoming pitch.

After being moved from the outfield, Ann Vasey shows her skill at third base.

With leading players Molly and Abby Gleason, Ann Vasey, and new pitcher Denise DeCarli, Varsity softball had a successful season. Despite tough Bay League competition, the Sea Kings performed admirably under such circumstances. Highlighting the pre-season was the Torrance Tournament in which PV defeated foes from the entire South Bay area.

Plagued with inexperience, the 1984 JV softball team had a tough, but enriching, Bay League season. Newcomers Darra Toloczko, Karen Anderson, Tomoko Akama boosted the team spirit with exciting play.

JV pitcher Karen Anderson starts her delivery on a hopeful strike-out.

PV School Board adjusts to changes

Dr. Jack Price
Superintendent

Dr. James L. Waters
Assistant Superintendent/Personnel

Mr. William K. VanRooyen
Assistant Superintendent/Business

Dr. Jack H. Rankin
Assistant Superintendent/Education

Mr. Jon K. Knickerbocker
Assistant to the Superintendent/
Administration/Secondary Education

School Board: Jack Bagdascar, Georgiana Rosenkranz, Rose Lachman, Patricia A. Johansen, Ann L. Hinchliffe, Martin Dodell

The school board works hard during meetings.

During Jack Price's first year as Superintendent of schools, the district and the school board worked diligently adjusting the educational changes required by Senate Bill 813 which was passed by the legislature last year. Under new Board President Rose Lachman, along with recently elected Jack Bagdascar and student member Georgiana Rosenkranz, the Board has also had to deal with the declining enrollment in Palos Verdes Peninsula Unified School District. However, strong college acceptances and high CAPS scores indicated that PVPUSD maintained its traditional leading role in education.

James Kinney: Director of Activities

Principal Nancy Detjen, as well as the administration has been delighted with the school's "new look." Funds from the sale of school sites were allocated for maintenance, using Spanish white and chocolate brown.

Students were happy to learn that the suspension rate declined this year, showing an increase in student responsibility. In addition, a strong program of academic excellence continued with the outstanding work of both faculty and students.

Daniel Boone: Assistant Principal

Christopher Bowles: Dean of Students

Students' behavior improved

Nancy Detjen: Principal

Richard Reese: Assistant Principal, Curriculum

Counselors console, counsel, corroborate

Cutbacks have reduced the counseling staff by one full-time position, leaving three full-time counselors and one part-time. Despite the heavier work load, the counselors have worked efficiently to help schedule classes.

The Career Center continued to provide information to help students interested in planning their future.

Madelyn Bilkey: Counselor, Physical Education, Work Experience.

Jean Hayduk, Jean Francisco, Hannelore Von Spaeth: Counseling Staff Secretaries.

Patricia Hearn: Counselor

Donald Brough: Counselor

Richard Selway: Counselor

Beverly Hill: Career Technician

Individualized work in English writing

In an attempt to increase individual instruction as much as possible the English Department has kept writing folders in which a record of the students' progress for all four years is filed.

These folders can be used as references by teachers to better gear their teaching programs to the students.

Rod Flagler, head of the department, felt this is a very valuable addition to the English program.

Carlton Jones: Shakespeare A.

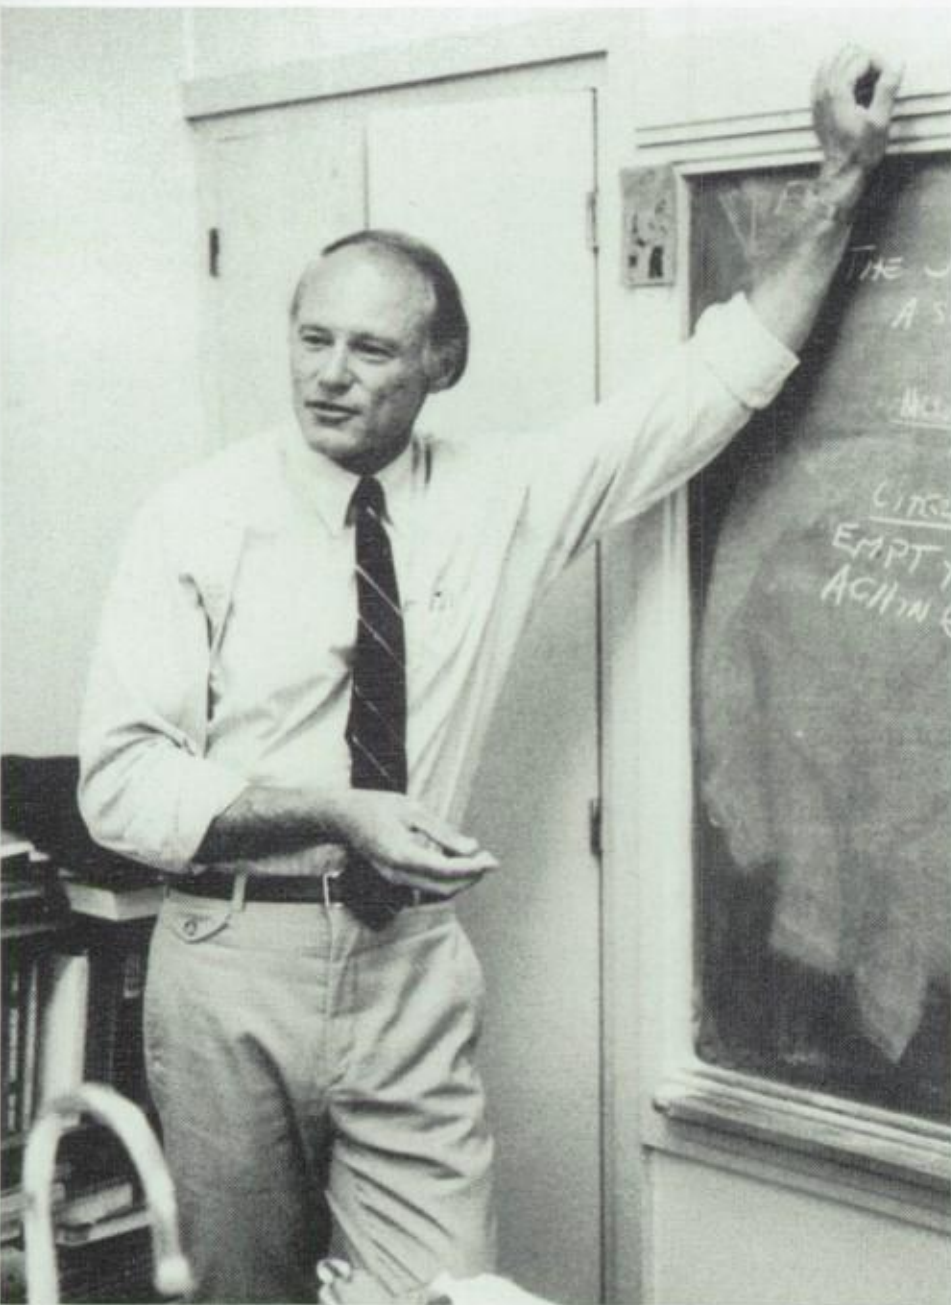

Al Borne: English I, Survey American Literature, Public Speaking, Composition.

Walter Dombroski: Reading Skill, I, II, III, IV, Composition.

Rod Flagler: English II Honors, Short Story, Composition Skills.

Barbara Glushenko: 20th Century Literature.

Van Baxter: English II, Media, Composition.

Romanyne Dowd: Composition, English I Honors, English I.

English classes amplify studies

Eugene Kasper: English II, Creative Writing A,B.

Dorothy Lee: Composition, English II, English II Honors.

Virginia Hicks: Instructional Aide. Yukiko Kuno: English as a Second Language, Composition.

Patricia Linehan: English I, Journalism I, II, III, IV, Photojournalism I, II, III, IV, Yearbook I, II, III, IV.

Joe Kelly: American Studies, Composition Literature, Coposition Literature Honors.

Robert Wilton: English I Honors, English II, English IV AP.

Scott Watson: Composition, Composition Skills, English I.

History still making history

Mike House: American Studies, U.S. History, Western Civilization.

James Dimitriou: Economics, Economics Modified.

Wilfred Lee: U.S. History, Government.

Ann Maria Smyth: Western Civilization, Western Civilization Honors.

Gary Hagins: Psychology, U.S. History, U.S. History Modified.

Pat Costantini: Government, Government Modified, Government Honors.

Maintaining its high quality performance, the Social Studies Department continued opening new doors in social sciences to students. Filled with skilled and entertaining teachers, this year's staff made history more enjoyable for classes of all levels.

Perry Lynn: Economics, Western Civilization.

Fred Crook: Western Civilization, Western Civilization Modified.

Richard Hadley: U.S. History, U.S. History AP.

This year was highlighted with the awarding of Miss Gell as Educator of the Year for her involvement in math and computers. When asked about computers of the future, Miss Gell replied, "Computers are developing so fast, that it is impossible to predict their future, and I hope we will be able to benefit from it."

David Calkins: Algebra II Honors, Science Fiction, Math Analysis.

Rascha Hall: Geometry, Geometry H, Algebra II.

Diane Maass: Algebra Prep, I.

Mathematics Department is continually expanding

Joan Gell: Algebra Prep, Computer Programming A, Science AP.

Donna Dunlap: Algebra Prep, II, Trig.

Gil Eberhard: Geometry.

Albert Costas: Algebra Prep, I, II.

Monte Furuya: Algebra II, Trig, Computer Programming.

Math offers computer courses

Mary Pisciotto: Algebra I, Algebra Prep.

Russell Neumen: Algebra I, Algebra Prep.

James Ryono: Algebra I, Trig Honors, Calculus.

Jill Thompson: Algebra I, II, Geometry.

Johann Harlow: Work Experience.

Typing classes use word processors

The Business Department offered a computer lab for word processing. The advanced typing class also used the lab which was an important step in increasing the classes' business skills.

Richard Hazeltine: Typing A, Accounting I,II, Consumer Math.

Josephine Smith: Typing A,B, General Business.

Students enlist in AP programs

Agnes Fernandez: Physical Lab Science, Chemistry I.

Rosemary Caterson: Physical Lab Science, Biology I.

Warren Pietro: Physics AP, PSSC Physics, Project Physics.

Douglas Martin: Biology I, Biology Special Materials, Athletics.

Ruth Hasley: Physical Lab Science, Chemistry I.

El Jay Warkentin: Chemistry I, II, Geometry.

Willard Judy: Biology I, Biology Special Materials, Athletics.

Diane Beardslee: Biology I, Physical Lab Science.

Shirley Beym: Biology I, II.

Science has much variety for students

Scientifically inclined students are offered a wide variety of classes. There is everything from physical lab science to physics advanced projects. Now that more AP classes are available, many students are getting involved.

Foreign Language not foreign to kids

"Seventy per cent of the students at Palos Verdes High are involved in the language department," said Kermit Olsen, chairman of the Language Department. He is just one of the eleven talented teachers who make up the foreign language faculty. Of the four languages offered, three have a four year course of study. Considering that the college language requirements are rising every year, Palos Verdes High School gives good preparation.

Helen Kilbury: Spanish I, II.

Jeanne Brice: French I, II.

Pete Fawaz: French II, III, IV, Math I, P.E., Athletics.

Anthony Kordich: Spanish I, II, III.

Marion Goetz: German I, II.

Gina Herzog: Spanish III, IV.

Maria Kusion: Latin I, II, Spanish I, II.

Languages increase knowledge

Olga Tavernakis: Spanish I.

Kermit Olson: German II, III, IV.

Vicki Smith: Spanish I II III.

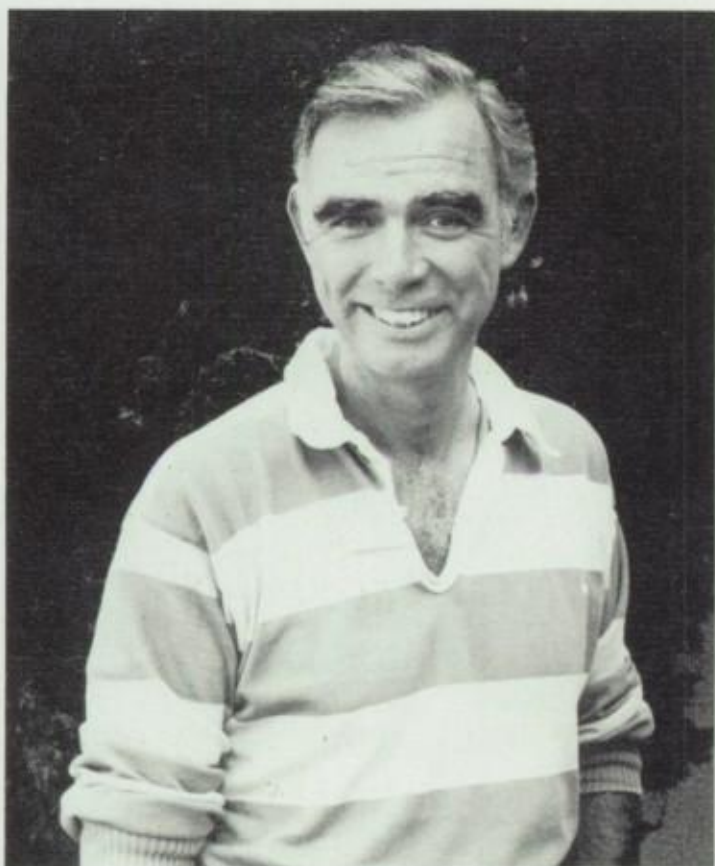

Jessica Leadley: Spanish I, II, III, IV.

Connie McIntyre: Choir

Performing Arts proves its excellence

Jim Bell: Drama I Audition, Drama I, II, III, IV.

Don Marino: Music Appreciation, Concert Band, Stage Band, Orchestra.

Christine Parrent: Drama I.

The Performing Arts Department excelled in many ways this year. In Drama, many awards were won by a very strong and talented group of drama students. There were also many fine performances in the Fall and Spring shows.

The Orchestra, Marching, Concert, Stage, and Jazz Bands all entertained the PV students with captivating and consistently excellent performances. The Jazz Band considered as one of the finest in Southern California.

More emphasis on research, theory

In the Art Department, more emphasis has been placed on reading, dealing with artists and artists' techniques in the belief that students would acquire new ideas and techniques. Students designed and constructed a calendar in Creative Design which was sold at the annual craft fair.

Also, students learned techniques in Beginning Art which helped them visualize shapes, spaces contours, and spacial relations. Ceramics was a popular course with an emphasis on sculpturing. Student artists also enjoyed various prestigious competitions in which they gained much recognition.

Linda Russell: Crafts, Beginning Art, Creative Design.

Ron Roush: Ceramics I, II, Beginning Ceramics.

Chizuko de Quieros: Commercial Art, AP Art, Drawing/Painting I, II.

PE Department reorganized

Alan King: Health and Driver's Education, Athletics.

Ken Russell: P.E., Athletics.

Rosemary Muilenburg: English I, Dance, Drill Team, Pep Squad.

John Mihaljevich: P.E., Athletics.

According to Madelyn Bilky, department chairman, changes in physical education for 1983-1984 included placing health and drivers ed in the P.E. department, restricting dance to sophomores and above, and emphasizing aerobics and physical fitness.

In addition, CPR and life saving classes remained an important part of the instructional program, as were the usual sports and games.

Technical Arts expands through its new robotics class

Walt Donahue: Woodshop, Advanced Woodshop, Cabinet Construction.

The new spinoff from computers affected Technical Arts by updating its equipment, according to Walter Donahue, department chairman. Enlarging the program and increasing enrollment are among the teachers' major goals. A new extracurricular robotics class is being offered to students who are interested. Next year, Donahue hopes that enough students will enroll to make it an academic program. A SCROC Satellite program will also be available for students to take on campus next year.

Brian Springer: Mechanical Drawing A, B, Metalshop, Health/Drivers Education.

Verla Mikel: U.S. History, Creative Cooking.

More emphasis is stressed on Career Education

Mary Larson: Resource Specialist Program.

Sue Neuman: Resource Specialist Program.

Dick Pearce: Continuation School.

Joan Virgo: Special Program School.

The Resource Specialist program moved on campus this year which made mainstreaming much easier. The resource and special day students used the six new computers, which were very close by, to instruct remedial programs and devise support and game skills. In addition, career education did a great job helping out students this year.

New Librarian comes to campus

The Palos Verdes High School Library has added a new head librarian, Nancy Forbes, who has really enjoyed her first year at Palos Verdes.

The student store made good use of its new Apple computer while the attendance office stated that there have been fewer absences this year. They believe this is because the students are more school-oriented.

Nancy Forbes: Head Librarian.

Toni Pizer, Molly Saunders: Textbook Room, Library Clerk.

Joyce Sundin: Student Store.

Patricia Pruitt: Driver's Training.

Pat Wooten, Fay Owen: Attendance Office.

Kay Urburu, Mary Bell White: Health Office, Nurse.

Terry Martin: Vice Principal's Office.

Maxine Daniels, Dena Cox: Main Office.

School aides lend a helping hand and a final touch

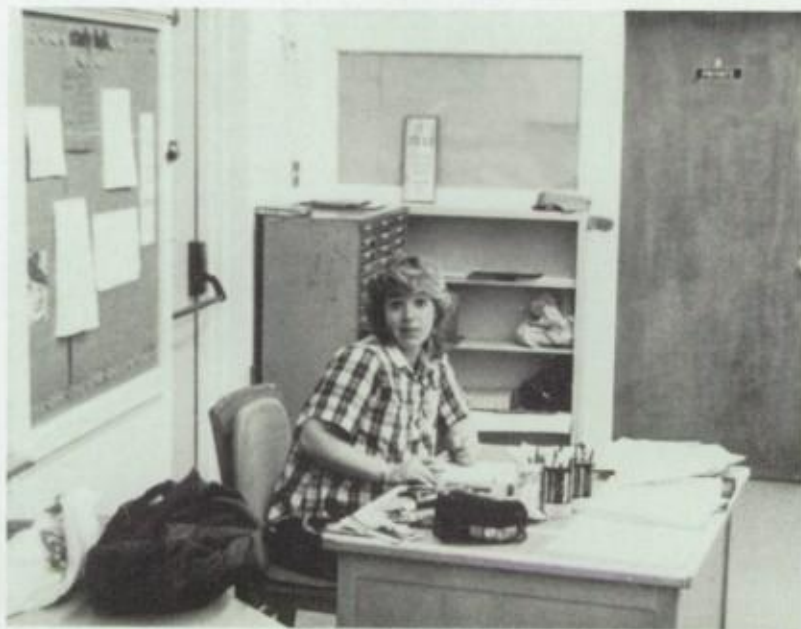

The English writing aides assist the teachers with grading and assignments. The aides, who put in fifteen hours a week, really help take the load of the teachers.

The special education program is designed to help students with learning disabilities. Three aides work to assist the students with homework and classroom assignments.

Study hall is held throughout the day. Its main purpose is to help students who need another class. No letter grade is issued.

English Writing Aides: Deryck Phillips, Felicia Hunter, Faith Sabel, Marlene Fuentevilla.

Study Hall Aide: Lyn Hunt.

RSP Aides: Patricia Glas, Carol Gauntlett.

Computer Aide: Sue Boehm.

Special Education Aide: Mary Lou Eberhard.

Custodians: Frank Leroy, Earl Nesbitt, Jeff Beck, Jerry Sisneros, Lloyds Wells, Jack Kitchen, Steven Almeida, Jack Kitchen.

School supervisors keep things clean

Custodians and groundsmen did a great job keeping the campus looking good, even with all the problems of trash and heavy rain. They had a lot hard work trying to keep all areas of the campus looking clean.

The cafeteria staff continued their terrific job by providing students with all types of food. The salad bar and baked potatoes continued to be very popular.

Campus supervisors - Helen, Fran, and Jim - kept everyone in the right spot at the right time. Palos Verdes certainly would not be the same without them.

Cafeteria Workers: Bertini Bliss, Donna Taylor, Mit Albanese, Ruth Stephens, Mary Crum, Jan Fitzpatrick, Kelly Webb, Elsie McGee, Brigitte Walz.

Campus Supervisor: Fran Davis.

Groundsmen: Val Guzman, Jesse Gonzales.

Campus Supervisor: James Mollica.

KNOW ONLY LOVE

Know not Hate.

For hate will weaken your ability to succeed.

Know only Love.

For love and understanding will strengthen your capacity for greatness.

Know not Deceit.

For deceit will become your enemy.

Know only Truth.

For truth and honesty will become your friends.

Know not Fear.

For fear will destroy your ambition.

Know only Courage.

For courage and perseverance will fulfill your dreams.

Know not Indifference.

For indifference will diminish your spirit.

Know only Inspiration.

For inspiration and eagerness will carry you through the darkest of days.

Know not Shame.

For shame will dissolve your self-esteem.

Know only dignity.

For dignity and self-respect will develop your desire to grow.

Know only Love.

Patricia Linehan

"Ah right, who stole my exacto?"

"Has anybody seen my board?"

"When will the pizza be ready?"

"Did you put the cassette in?" "No. Did you?" "No."

"Pass the Hershey Kisses please!"

There are a lot of crazy things that happened in Room 403 that I never want to forget. It has been four years of hectic deadlines, never ending questions and constant weight gain. And I loved every minute of it!

Thank you Mrs. Linehan (mom) for helping us create memories for 2000 people. We never could have done any of this without you! You put a lot of faith in us and we appreciate it.
